2009 ANNUAL CONFERENCE

NN2 2009 ANNUAL CONFERENCE
“MAKING THE PIECES FIT”
(IN HEALTH CAREER EDUCATION)
DALLAS, TEXAS
SEPTEMBER 30, - OCTOBER 3, 2009

The National Network of Health Career Programs in Two-Year Colleges is an organization composed of health education leaders from across the nation from two-year colleges. We are dedicated to:

- Promoting and encouraging innovation, collaboration, cooperation, and communication with two-year colleges sponsoring health career programs.
- Developing new leaders in health career education.
- Expressing and advocating the interest of health career programs in two-year colleges (i.e., accreditation issues, practice issues, federal policy issues etc.)
- Working collaboratively with other professional communities of interest to further policy related to health career education and higher education.

Join us in 2009 for our annual conference.
